

GCG Role Finder

The screens, and why each one exists

A single web page that works as Gold Coast Games' team operating system. People onboard by playing a short game that produces their player card. Hinda gives people titles and plans events from templates. The page breaks each event into tasks, suggests the best person for each, and everyone sees progress and who did what. Every contribution is recorded for fair credit later.

All screens use sample data with made-up names and a sample event. Shown at phone width.

01 Welcome screen

WHAT IT SHOWS

First thing a new person sees: what the app is for, that it takes 10 to 15 minutes, that it is not a commitment, the five levels, and the prize at the end (their player card).

WHY IT MATTERS

Sets expectations so people start relaxed and finish. Framing it as a game makes onboarding feel like play, not paperwork.

02 Warm-up: what pulls you in

WHAT IT SHOWS

Pick the kinds of work you lose track of time doing.

WHY IT MATTERS

An easy first tap that gets people moving and gives an early signal about their interests.

WARM-UP

What kind of work makes you lose track of time?

Pick as many as you like.

 Talking and working with people ☒

 Making things: design, video, writing ☒

 Solving technical problems and working with tools ☐

 Organising, planning and keeping things on track ☐

 Working with numbers, records and detail ☐

 Looking after people ☐

Situations: most and least like me

WHAT IT SHOWS

Eight real situations. Tap the option most like you, then the one least like you.

WHY IT MATTERS

Forcing a choice between good options is harder to fake than rating yourself, so the strengths on the card are more honest.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Six real GCG jobs matched to the answers so far, each with what it involves and who it suits. Yes, maybe or not for me.

WHY IT MATTERS

People see concrete jobs, not abstract traits, and say what they want and do not want. This drives task suggestions later.

JOB 1 OF 6

These jobs might suit you. Do they sound like you?

Your answers point to:

Welcoming people

Persuading and negotiating

Staying connected

STRATEGYNEEDED SOON

Community strategy

Turns first-time guests into regulars: follow-up, invitations, staying in touch.

Good fit if: You remember people and enjoy building a relationship over time.

★ Level 3 cleared: Experience

The player card

WHAT IT SHOWS

The reward: a type (for example The Room Lifter and Welcomer), strongest five traits, and a short description in plain words.

WHY IT MATTERS

Helps people feel seen and understood. It is also the base for matching them to tasks.

Hosting a room

You make people feel at home the moment they arrive, and you can make the case and land the yes. There is some Connector in you too.

You work best with one or two others, with a goal and some guidance.

You lose track of time talking and working with people or making things: design, video, writing.

You would rather not spend your days on leading, and that is useful to know.

In a few years you see yourself up front: hosting, welcoming, being the face of GCG.

Built from your own answers. A starting point, not a verdict.

Strengths for your CV

WHAT IT SHOWS

The card turned into CV-ready lines: strengths, experience, skills and connections, how they work best. One tap to copy.

WHY IT MATTERS

Gives people something useful for themselves, beyond GCG. A reason to finish onboarding properly.

Strengths for your CV

Written from your answers. Edit them to fit before you use them.

STRENGTHS

- Creating a warm, welcoming experience for guests and newcomers
- Persuading, negotiating and closing agreements
- Building relationships and keeping networks active

EXPERIENCE

- Hosted a 60-person quiz night at uni, from booking the room to running it.
- Hosted or MC'd an event, show or panel
- Designed, photographed or edited video for others

SKILLS AND CONNECTIONS

- Design in Canva, Figma or similar

WORKS BEST

- Works best with one or two others, with a goal and some guidance.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Name, date, time, place and lead. The next checkpoint with a countdown, task status counts, and the main actions: suggest people, send offers, due-soon message, run sheet, PDFs.

WHY IT MATTERS

One screen to start and steer an event. Picking a template and a date builds the whole plan automatically.

WHAT IT SHOWS

A Today cursor across the checkpoints, a bar filling as tasks get done, each stage opening to show who did what, and a feed of the latest finished tasks.

WHY IT MATTERS

Everyone sees the bigger picture and their contribution land straight away. A visible incentive to get things done.

WHAT IT SHOWS

The top five things at risk: overdue, stuck, nobody on it, or due soon and not taken.

WHY IT MATTERS

Hinda and the event lead see instantly where to act, instead of reading every task.

My tasks (team member)

WHAT IT SHOWS

How this works in three steps, add all tasks to my calendar, and Your #1 right now.

WHY IT MATTERS

People always know the one thing to do next, and can put everything in their own calendar.

MY TASKS

Your tasks

▼ How this works

1. Say yes or no. Each task was picked for you from your player card. Saying no is fine.
2. Plan it. Pick your own day to do it, before the deadline, and add it to your calendar.
3. Tick it done. Say how it went. The event's progress bar moves, and the team sees who did what.

WHAT FALLS UNDER IT

WHAT IT SHOWS

How fast things really get done: offers answered, tasks finished, on-time rate, times stuck, and suggested template changes.

WHY IT MATTERS

Turns every event into learning so plans get more realistic and the system less chaotic over time.
