WHAT IT SHOWS

A dark banner with your name and bio, then what to do now: the phase (before, during or after the event), a suggested first task with Mark done, and the rest of this phase with a tick on each. Later phases are folded. The bell in the banner holds notifications.

WHY IT MATTERS

Answers in seconds: who am I here, what do I do now. You can start with any task; the first one is only a suggestion.

11 Home, full page

WHAT IT SHOWS

The same screen scrolled: the rest of this phase, Done, Coming up (during and after, folded), and a short More list.

WHY IT MATTERS

Everything stays one tap away without piling up on screen.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Tap the bell to see messages from Hinda, new task offers and replies. Tap it again, or Close, to put them away.

WHY IT MATTERS

Clearly signalled, never in the way.

WHAT IT SHOWS

Each event as a timeline: stages, which one is current, how ready it is, days to go, and what is next.

WHY IT MATTERS

The only place the timeline lives, so the task screens stay light.

 Game Plan

The plan
